Organization and Purposes for Commissions and Committees

- 1) With exception to the SSMF, all appointments shall be made by the Department Commander and approved by the Department Executive Committee at the first meeting following the Department Convention. Vacancies occurring during the term of office shall be filled by the Department Commander and approved by the Department Executive Committee.
- 2) No one individual should sit on more than three (3) standing Committees/Commissions combined at any time.
- 3) Unless stated otherwise, Commission members will serve for one year between Department Conventions. The Chairman does not have to be a member of the respective Commission. This will apply to Commissions only.
- 4) Unless stated otherwise, Committee members will serve for one year between Department Conventions. Committee Chairmen (i.e. Program Directors) shall be appointed by the Commander from within the membership of the Committee.
- 5) Non-American Legion family members may serve as consultants on Commissions and Committees with no vote.
- 6) Written reports from all standing Commissions and committees are mandatory at all Department Executive Committee meetings, Mid-Winter Conference and Department Convention. Committee Chairman may present a report upon the request of their respective Commission Chairman and the approval of the Department Commander. All Commission Chairman are required to submit their reports to the Adjutant's office 10 days prior to DEC meeting. Written Reports are required 30 days prior to each Department Convention and Mid-Winter Conference.
- 7) The Department Commander, Senior Vice-Commander, Judge Advocate and Immediate Past Department Commander shall be ex-officio members of all Standing Commissions and Committees.
- 8) The Immediate Past Department Commander is eligible to serve as a regular member on Commissions and Committees.

- 9) The Department Commander with the approval of the Department Executive Committee may remove any member from a commission or committee who has absented themselves from attendance at three consecutive meetings of the respective commission or committee.
- 10) All standing Commissions and Committees will hold a meeting within sixty (60) days after the Department Convention to formulate plans for the ensuing year and provide an opportunity for new and returning members and program directors to become familiar with their duties and responsibilities.
- 11) District appointed chairman may be considered to serve on corresponding Department Commissions or Committees. Districts must make their committee appointments prior to Department convention and submit to Department Adjutant.
- 12) Committees or Commissions may transact business by mail or email vote. If an email vote is implemented, each response must be forwarded to all members of the Committee or Commission. If standard mail is used, the voting shall be considered closed at the end of ten (10) business days provided a majority of members of the committee or commission have returned their votes to the chairman by that time, or it shall be considered closed at any time prior thereto if all members have returned their votes. In the event one-third (1/3) of the committee or commission members objects in writing, the matter shall not be decided and will be considered as the first order of business at the next regular meeting or special meeting and the chairman shall notify the committee or commission of the action taken.
- 13) No elected Department Officer shall be a member of any standing Commission or Committee, except the Department Chaplain, Department Historian, National Executive Committeeman and Alternate National Executive Committeeman, and as otherwise noted.
