

Fellow Legionnaires,

During the 2024 Department Convention, I had the privilege of having you elect me to serve as your Department Commander for 2024 – 2025. During the installation ceremony, the Installing Officer, PDC Butch Hansen, read the following from the official installation ceremony, “You will, I know, vindicate the trust that has been reposed in you, and fulfill in every way the obligations which that trust entails.” This is a charge which I do not take lightly. I have been given the trust of Connecticut’s over 14,000 American Legion members and I will do my absolute best to ensure that I uphold all the obligations which come with that trust. From the bottom of my heart, I thank you all for the confidence you have shown in my ability to lead the great Department of Connecticut.

I am drafting this month’s message while in Indianapolis attending the National Membership Workshop. Our posts and their membership are the foundation of this great organization. As we begin the 2025 membership year, I am asking all members to serve as ambassadors for The American Legion. Spread the word about who we are and what we do. Ask your fellow veterans to join us. The Department of Connecticut lost over 1,000 members to post everlasting in 2024. We owe it to them, and all our predecessors, to make up for that loss by recruiting new members and reengaging our expired members. Our presence in our communities, state, and nation is too important not to continue and we cannot do that without a strong membership base.

My theme this year is “No Veteran Left Indoors.” The outdoors is a place of healing for many people and getting in touch with nature is good for both our physical and mental health. Each month, I hope to be able to highlight organizations and events which will get our veterans outdoors. At our Department Convention we met several groups that help with this including: The Fallen Outdoors, Take A Vet Fishing, Project Healing Waters, and Fishing for the Mission 22. Please check out these groups and see what they have to offer. If there are outdoor groups with which you are familiar, reach out to me so that we may see about partnering with them for events. This may include organizations such as rod & gun clubs, hiking or backpacking clubs, canoeing, or kayaking groups, etc. Let’s see how many organizations we can bring into our mission of helping veterans this year.

Lastly, please join me in wishing PDC / PNVC Jim LaCoursiere the best of luck as he joins the rest of Connecticut’s delegates at the 105th National Convention in New Orleans, LA and works to get elected as the National Commander of our nation’s largest veteran service organization. I know he will be successful in this endeavor and that he will represent our organization extremely well in the year to come. I know that I speak for all Connecticut Legionnaires when I say how proud we are of Jim and everything he has done to get to this point.

Yours in Service,
John F. DeBisschop III
Department Commander

Comrades,

Thank You to the members of The American Legion Department of Connecticut for this opportunity to serve you, as Department Senior Vice Commander. I intend to hit the deck running and will be at the district as well as post meetings to discuss Membership and Making It Happen. If your post is planning an event, please email me at cmkell89@gmail.com or call me (203) 673-2745 so that I can help.

Now more than ever, our communities, state and nation need the American Legion and our programs. To carry out these programs, we need to engage our community and our fellow veterans to an even greater extent than we already do. I understand that many of our posts feel the strain of trying to do more with less members. If we engage our Legion Family, our community, and other veterans around us, I believe that We can Make it Happen and gain additional active members.

The following are points regarding a few key programs that I will be actively promoting over the upcoming months, one or two points per month as I travel throughout the state and via the monthly bulletin. - Buddy Checks twice a year -- Revitalization calls to Transfer members from Post 200 into local posts (plan for October) -- The Four Pillars of The American Legion and, Engaging our members.

This month the primary focus is on Making Buddy Checks Happen. We need to reach out to our comrades on a regular basis. Buddy Checks benefit us and our comrades on so many levels.

Below are tips on how to organize a Buddy Check.

1. Gather up a team. If each member in a team of ten contacts just 10 Legionnaires or former Legionnaires, one hundred veterans can be reached in one sitting.
2. Get your list of members and former members. You can download them from MyLegion.org
3. Divide up the call list among your team members. Some may have personal connections with the member or the former member and should make that particular buddy check.
4. Start making connections – either from a quiet place inside the post or from your home – to see how the members and former members are doing, ask if they need anything and invite them to any event or activity planned.
5. Make sure you thank the member or former member at the end of your call.
6. If the member or former member wishes to renew, be sure to have your post's payment procedure at your fingertips, the address to send a check.
8. Leave contact information in case the member or former member can't take the call or needs anything in the future.

Sincerely Yours in Service,

Mike Kellett

Bulletin No. 1

Adjutant Personal Message

To the entire Legion Family,

As I get ready to embark on my adventure as the National Commanders Aide after National Convention, I wanted to take a moment to sincerely thank everyone for their friendship and comradery over the past 8 ½ years. I have genuinely enjoyed my job and the people I have met, and while I don't know what the future may hold when I return from my leave of absence, I look forward to returning and seeing everyone. While I am traveling, Past Commander Tom Moore will be the acting Adjutant and I expect that you will show him the same courtesies that you have shown me. Tom has been training since January, but you all know how difficult this job can be, so be patient and the job will get done. Thank you for everything and see you in a year.

My Legion Training

Department Headquarters will be conducting My Legion training on Wednesday October 9, 2024, 9:00 AM – 1:00 PM and 5:30 PM to 9:00 PM. If you would like to attend, please call our office and schedule with Sue.

Department Convention

The department convention has come and gone; we would like to thank everyone for attending what we believe to be a very successful convention. We would like to thank all the speakers and vendors who attended and gave us the opportunity to meet them and hear about their programs. We have elected a new Department Commander, John DeBisschop, please congratulate him as he travels around the Department. The raffle prize drawing winners are listed in the bulletin along with a complete list of the newly elected Department Officers.

Please copy and share all Bulletin information as widely as possible!

National Convention

National Convention is fast approaching and on August 29, 2024, we are looking forward to seeing Jim LaCoursiere elected as our next National Commander for the American Legion. It has been over 70 years since our last National Commander and for a small state to have two in its history is no small feat. If you aren't going to New Orleans, you will be able to watch the convention live on Legion.org There is a list of delegates and alternates who will be attending located in the bulletin.

How to Support a Veteran in Crisis

Keep these tips in mind when talking with a Veteran who may be at risk for suicide:

- Remain calm
- Listen more than you speak
- Maintain eye contact
- Act with confidence
- Do not argue
- Use open body language
- Limit questions—Let the Veteran do the talking
- Use supportive, hopeful comments
- Be honest—There are no quick solutions, but help is available

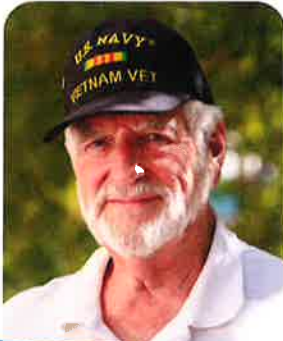

Additional Resources

- VA Mental Health Services: Get information about inpatient and outpatient services available through VA at MentalHealth.VA.gov.
- Online Resource Locator: Find VA facilities, Vet Centers, suicide prevention coordinators, and other VA resources at VeteransCrisisLine.net/LocalResources.
- Keep It Secure: Promotes awareness about the simple steps you can take to protect yourself and your family. It focuses on sharing information about secure gun and medication storage, the warning signs of suicide, and how to find the support you or a Veteran loved one needs. KeepItSecure.net
- Don't wait. Reach out.: Use this site to find support and resources designed specifically for Veterans. If you're a family member or a friend, you can also find resources for the Veteran in your life. VA.gov/REACH

Do you want to take VA S.A.V.E. Training?

Go to learn.psycharmor.org/courses/va-save to take the course online or contact your local suicide prevention coordinator to schedule in-person training: VeteransCrisisLine.net/LocalResources.

You don't have to be enrolled in VA benefits or health care to take VA S.A.V.E. Training.

VA S.A.V.E. TRAINING

FOUR WAYS YOU CAN HELP A VETERAN IN CRISIS

What is VA S.A.V.E. Training?

VA S.A.V.E. Training is a free, brief online or in-person course that will help you act with care and compassion if you come across a Veteran who is in crisis or having thoughts of suicide. The acronym S.A.V.E. helps you remember the important steps involved in suicide prevention:

- S Know the Signs that indicate a Veteran might be thinking about suicide
- A Ask the most important question of all — “Are you thinking of killing yourself?”
- V Validate the Veteran’s experience
- E Encourage treatment and Expedite getting help

VA

U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs

S

Know the Signs that indicate a Veteran may be thinking about suicide

The signs below may indicate that a Veteran needs help. If you or a Veteran you know is experiencing any of these, contact the Veterans Crisis Line:

- Hopelessness, feeling like there's no way out
- Anxiety, agitation, sleeplessness, or mood swings
- Feeling like there's no reason to live
- Rage or anger
- Engaging in risky activities without thinking
- Increasing alcohol or drug use
- Withdrawing from family and friends

The signs below require immediate attention. If you or a Veteran you know is experiencing any of these and needs medical attention, call 911 now:

- When asked, they express a desire to hurt or kill themselves
- When prompted, they reveal they're looking for ways to die by suicide
- They talk about death, dying, or suicide
- They begin to exhibit self-destructive behavior, such as increased drug or alcohol use, talking about obtaining/using weapons for self-harm, or saving up medication

Ask the most important question of all: "Are you thinking of killing yourself?"

Other ways to ask the question include: "Are you thinking of suicide?" or "Have you had thoughts about taking your own life?"

When asking the question, remember:

- DO ask the question if you've identified warning signs
- DO ask the question in such a way that's natural and flows with the conversation
- DON'T ask the question as though you're looking for a "no" answer ("You're not thinking of killing yourself, are you?")
- DON'T wait to ask the question until they're halfway out the door

V

Validate the Veteran's experience

Use the following steps to let the Veteran know you're listening and acknowledge their experience:

- Talk openly about suicide. Be willing to listen, allow the Veteran to express their feelings, and make supportive, encouraging comments.
- Recognize the situation is serious
- Don't pass judgement

E

Encourage treatment and Expedite getting help

If a Veteran is having thoughts of suicide, remain calm and reassure them help is available:

- DON'T keep the Veteran's suicidal behavior a secret
- DON'T leave them alone
- Try to get the Veteran to seek immediate help from their doctor or the nearest hospital or emergency room
- Call 911

Safety is Important

Never negotiate with someone who has a gun. Get to safety and call 911. If the Veteran has taken pills, cut themselves, or has done harm to themselves in some way, call 911.

Working Together Toward Preventing Suicide

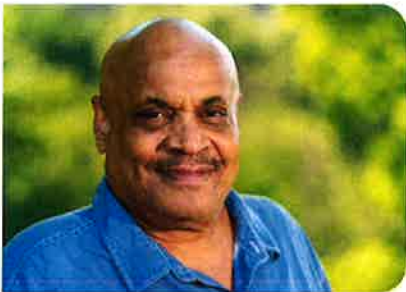

Support Veterans in Your Community

VA's highest clinical priority is Veteran suicide prevention. But we can't do it alone. Everyone has a role to play in keeping Veterans healthy and safe. And it starts in your community.

Why communities are critical in preventing Veteran suicide

Approximately half of Veterans receive care outside VA. VA is dedicated to reaching all Veterans where they live and connect. To do this, VA and communities are coming together to implement the public health approach, combining community and clinical interventions for suicide prevention. Together, VA and communities can work toward ending Veteran suicide.

What you can do

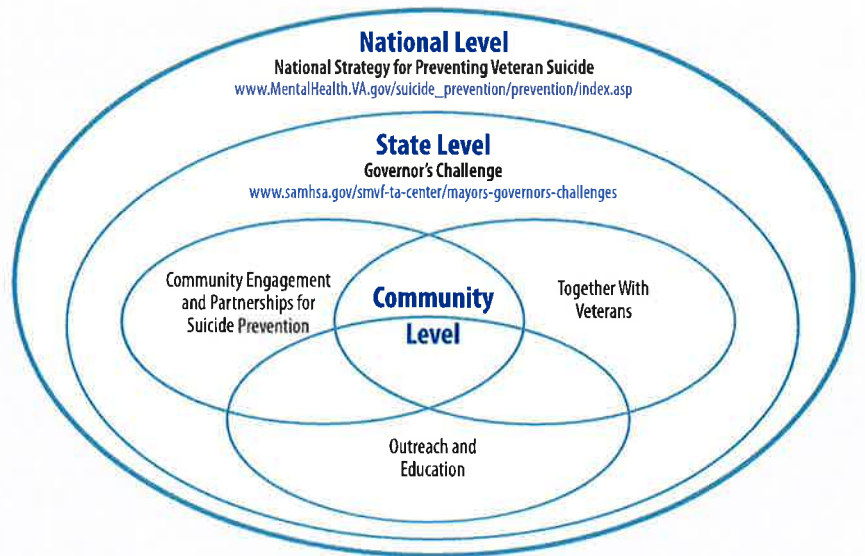

We invite communities to partner with our community engagement and partnership coordinators to enhance suicide prevention efforts. Community partners may include:

- Community mental health organizations, Veterans Service Organizations, or homeless organizations
- Mental health providers
- First responders or members of the clergy
- Representatives of a municipality, business, recreational organization or club, or health agency
- Veterans, service members, or members of their families
- Gun shop owners or employees
- Community members

How it works

VA uses evidence-based interventions to reach Veterans through multiple touchpoints at the local, state, and national levels.

Priority areas of focus

Identify service members, Veterans, and their families and screen for suicide risk

Promote connectedness and improve care transitions

Increase lethal means safety and safety planning

How to start

Contact your nearest community engagement partnership coordinator (CEPC), who may help the community identify care needs and opportunities for support and facilitate coalition efforts for suicide prevention public health strategies.

CEPCs are available to assist communities with:

- Coalition building and assisting with organizing coalition leadership
- Logistical and technical support
- Conducting needs assessments and environmental scans
- Program evaluation
- Data surveillance
- Action planning
- Knowledge about VA
- Suicide prevention training
- Outreach and education related to suicide prevention strategies

If you're passionate about supporting Veterans, join us. You can make a difference in a unified effort to prevent Veteran suicide.
